FATHER Hubburds Tales:

or THEANT,

And the Nightingale.

LONDON

Printed by T. C. for William Cotton, and are to be solde at his Shop neareadioyning to Ludgate. 1604.

FATHER

-Iubburds Tales:

OR

THEANT.

And the Nightingale.

Printed by T. C. for William Corcon, and are to be foldert his Shop nearead, iouring to Ludgate, 1604.

Generall Patron of all Mujes, Musicians, Poets, & Picture Drawers, Syr Christopher Clusch-Fist, Knighted at a very hard Peny-worth; neither for eating Mush millions, Hauchouis, or Cancare; but for a colliler Exploye, and a Hundred pound Feate of Armes; Oliner Hubburd, brother to the Nine-wayting-Gentlewomen, the Muses, wisheth the decrease of his Lands, & the Encrease of his Legger, that his Calues may hang downe like Gama hises.

Oft Guerdonleffe Syr Pinching Patron, and the Muses bad Pay maifter; Thou that owest for all the Pamphlets, Histories, and Translations, that ever bath bin Dedicated to theel, since thou were one

you

and twentie, & could fimake Water vpô thine owne Lands, but Beware, Sir, you cannot carry it away fo, I cantellyou, for all your Copper-guilt Spurres, and your Brood of Feathers, for there are certaine Lyme-Sharkers, that have courff the Countries to feeke you out alreadic, and they nothing doubt but to find you here this Gandelmas Tearme, which if it should fall out so, (as I hope your Worship is wiserthe to yenture up so so no rothe Chambers of London) they have plotted together, with the best Common Play Plotter in England, to arrest

Oliver Hubburd.

The Epible Dedicatorie.

you at the Muses sute sthough they shoote short of them and to fet one of the Seriants of Poctry, or rather the Poultry, to clawe you by the Back who with one clapion your shoulder, will bruifeall the Taffaty to pieces; now what the matter is betweene you, you knowe best your selfe, Syr; onely I heare, that they rayle against you in Booke-tellers Shoppes very dreadfully, that you have vide them most vn-knightly, in offering to take their Bookes, and would neuer returne so much as would pay for the Couers; beside the Gilding too; which stands them in fornewhat you know, and a yard & a quarter of broad fix peny Ribard, the price of that, you are notignorant of your felf, bicaule you weare broad floo-firing, and they cannot be perfwaded but that you pull the strings off from their Bookes, and formainraine your shooes all the yearelong, and think verily if the Booke be in . Folio, that you take off the Parchment & giue it to your Taylor; but laucall the Gilding together, which may amount in time to gild you a a paire of Spurs withall; fuch are the milerable conceits they gather of you, because you never giue the poore Muje fuckers a peny : wherefore if I might counsell you, Sir, the next time they came with their gilded Dedicatios, you should take the Bookes, make your men breake their Pates, then give them ten Groats a piece, and fo driue them away on besteld pund your (was

Tour Worships, if you mubracemy Counfel,

104

Oliver Hubburd.

Hall Itellyou what Reader obut first is should call youngentle, curteous, and wife, buttismo matter; they're but folish words of our legt and better left out then Printed; for if you be fo, you need not be cald for and if you be not for there were Lawe against melfor calling you out of your namics) by John of Powles Church-yard I sweare, and that oath will be taken at any Haberdashers. I neuer with this Booke better fortune, then to fall into the hands of a true spelling Prirter, and an honest minded Booke seller, and if honestic could be solde by the Bushell like Oysters; I had rather have one Busbell of honestie, then three of moncy.

Why I call these Father Hubburds Tales is not to have them cald in againe, as the Tale of Mother Hubburd, the worlde would showe litle judgement in that yfaith: and I should say then plena stultorum omnia; for I entreat here neither of Ragged

ged Beares, or Apes, no, nor che lamentable downefall of theolde wives Platters, I deale with no fuch Mettal: what is mirth in mee, is as harmeleffe as the quarter lacks in Powls, that are vp with their Elbows foure times an houre, and vermilvie no creature lining: the veric bittrest in me, is but like a Phisical Frost, that nips the wicked Blood alitle, and to makes the whole Bodie the wholefomer and none can infly except at me, but some riotous vomiting Kit, or some Gentleman fivallowing Mol-kin; then to condemne these Tales following, because Father Hubbard tels them in the Imal Syle of an Am, is even as much, as if theferwo words , God and Divel , were Printed both in one line, to skip it ouer, and say that line were naught, because the Dinel were in it : Sat Japienti ; And I hope there be many wife men in all the Tale of Mother HisingqmoDsubsville vendural share vendural share well-winder und gement in that y fair and the share for the plent for the same on the contract of Rag-

gra

THE REPORT OF THE PARTY OF THE

The Ant, and the Nightingale.

The west-Seas Goddesse in a crimson Robe rood aid T Her Temples circled with a currall wreather and and Waighted her Loue, the lightner of Earths Globe, it also make the wanton winder did on her bosome breathers a mineral of The Nimphs of Springs did hollowed water power, I What ere was sold, helpt to make coole her Bower of T

And now the hery Horles of the Suits to real editions and Were from their golden flaming Garvatrac de albitrage A. Regardell, about the Gloriciof the day was done, anworrient sure to force the day was done, anworrient sure to force Light mounts clouds inchao de V. Saue here and there flowe Light mounts clouds inchao de V. Beatle are not disconscilidad predictions and Them amorous bad edited to the first sure of the Sun and Them amorous bad edited to the first sure of the Sun and Them amorous bad edited to the sure of the Sun and Them amorous bad edited to the sure of the Sun and Them amorous bad edited to the sure of the Sun and Them amorous bad edited to the sure of the Sun and Them amorous bad edited to the sure of the sure of

Now had the Shepheards folded in their Flocks on robuV
The sweating Teemes vacoupled from their yeakes or of T
The wolfe sought pray and the stier murding Fexen and T
Attempts to stealer fearelesse of rural streakes of murding T
All be also tooke rest that lived by labouring toole, sw
Onely such rangide as had delight in spoiles of year T

Now in the Pathleffe region of the Ayre, and alach on O
The winged passengers had left to so are obtained and bis bis H
Except the Bat and Owle who had sad care, and this bin A
And Philomes that nightly do the deplore and that we bleed I
In solice contenting numes her change of shape, and W Wrought sinft by perflety and institut Rape, made in

This is

This poore Mulitian litting all alone
On a greene Hawthorne, from the thunder bleft.
Carolls in varied notes her antique mone,
Keeping a sharpned Brier against her brest.
Her innocence this watchfull payne doth take,
To shun the Adder and the speckled Snake.

Vnder the tree wherein the poore Birdline, South and wolf There was a bed of busic toyling: Antaman Tenting Teem, and Souther, winters comfort gat, guol allow and I hat in their Souther, winters comfort gat, guol allow and I Teaching poore men how to shind after wants of stempts A teem of the Rules if slig gards could be learning keepe, A. They should not start a wake live ability sleepe; long

One of these busine brethren having donne itse? and in word His daies true labour got point the troes after page with a private the parties of the And with his litterlimble I egisdid rubine, a fact that the heaving he delired to fee all the business of the What wondrous Creature Mature had composed in In whom such Gistious Musick was enclosed by the He

He got too neare: for the mistrustfull bird
Gest him to be a spye from her knowne soe:
Suspition argues not to heare a word,
What wiseman seares not that's invide to woe?
Then blame not her, she caught him in her beake,
About to kill him ere the worme could speake,

But yet her mercy was aboue her heate,
She did not as a many filken men
Cald by much wealth, smal wit, to Iudgement seate, Condemne at randome; but she pittied then
When she might spoile, wold great ones wold do so,
Who often kill, before the cause they know.

O if they would as did this litle Fowle,
Looke on their lesser Captines with even Ruth:
They should not heare so many sentence, Howle,
Complaying Instice is not friend to truth:
But they would thinke vpon this Antient Theame,
Each Right extreame, is Injury extreame.

Passe them to mend, for none can them amend,
But heavens Leistenant, and earths Justice King,
Sterne will, hath will; no great-one wants a friend,
Some are ordained to fornow, some to sing;
And with this sentence letthy Griefes all close
Who ere are wrongd, are happier then their foes.

shiw B

THE STATE OF THE S

The Ant, and the Nighting ale.

In the birds beake and at the point to die:

Alas for woe, friends in distresse are scant,

None of his Fellowes to his helpe did hie:

They keepe them safe, they heare and are afraid:

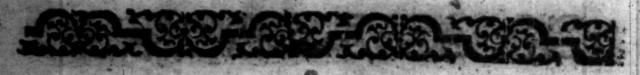

Tis vaine to trust in the base numbers aide.

Onely himselfe vnto himselfe is friend;
With a faint voice his Foe he thus bespake:
Why seekes your gentlenes a poore wormes end?
Oere you kill, heare the excuse I make:
I come to wonder, not to worke offence,
There is no Glorie to spoile Innocence.

Perchance you take me for a foothing Spye,
By the slie Snake or enuious Adder feede:
Alas I know not how to faine and lye,
Or win a base Intelligencers meede,
That now are Christians, sometime Turks, then I wes,
Liuing, by leaving Heaven for earthly Newes,

Trust me: I am a litle Emmet borne to worke,
Oft times a man, as you were once a maide:
Vnder the name of man much ill doth lurke,
Yet of poore me, you neede not be afraid:
Meane men, are wormes on whom the mightie tread,
Greatnes and strength your Vertue injured.

With

ELECTIFICATION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY

The Ant, and the Nighting ale.

With that the opend wide her hornie bill,
The prison where this poore submissant lay:
And seeing the poore Ant lie quiu'ring still:
Goe wretch, quoth she: I give thee life and way:
The worthy will not pray on yeelding things,
Pittie's infeoffed to the blood of Kings.

For I was once, though now a featherde vaile
Couer my wronged bodie Queenelike clad
This downe about my neck was earst a Raile
Of Bisse imbrodered, sie on that we had
Vnthrifts and Fooles and wronged ones complaine,
Rich things were theirs, must nere be theirs againe.

I was thou know'st the Daughter to a King,
Had pallaces and pleasures in my time:
Now mine owne songs I am enforc'd to sing,
Poets forget me in their pleasing rime,
Like chaffe they slie tost with each windie breath,
Omitting my fore'st Rape by Tereus death!

But tis no matter: I my selfe can sing
Sufficient straines to witnesse mine owne worth:
They that forget a Queene, sooth with a King,
Flatterie's still barren, yet still bringeth forth,
Their workes are dewes, shed when the day is donne
But suckt vp drie by the next morning Sunne.

B 2

What

ETE ETE ETE ETE ETE ETE

The Ant, and the Nightingale.

What more of them? they are like his throne,

Commixt with many Colours in moyst time:

Such lines portend what's in that circle showne:

Cleare weather followes showers in enery Clime,

Auerring no Prognosticator lyes

That sayes, some Great ones fall, their Rivalls rise.

Passe such for bubbles, let their bladder-prayse

Shine and sinck with them in a moments changes

They thinke to rise, when they the Riserrayse

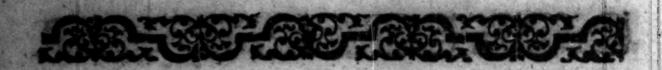

But regall wisedome knowes it is not strange

For Curs to fawne, base things are ever lowe,

The vulgar Eye feeds onely on the showe.

Else would not soothing Glosers oyle the Sonne,
Who, while his Father linde his Acts did hate:
They know all earthly day with man is donne
When he is circled in the Night of Fate,
So the deceased they thinke on no more,
But whome they injurde late they now adore.

But there's a Manly Lion now can Rore,
Thunder more dreaded then the Lionesse:
Of him let simple beasts his ayde implore,
For he conceiues more, then they can expresse.
The vertuous Politick, is truly man,
Diuel, the Atheist, Polititian.

I

I gest thee such a one: but tell thy tale,
If thou be simple as thou hast exprest:
Doe not with Coyned words set wit to sale;
Nor with the flattning world vie vay ne protest,
Sith man thou saist thou wert, I prethee tell
While thou wert man, what mischiefs thee befell?

Princesse! you bid me buried cares reuiue,
Quoth the poore Ant: yet fith by you I liue:
So let me in my daily labrings thrine,
As I my selfe doe to your service give:
I have bene oft a man, and so to be,
Is often to be thrall to milery.

But if you will have me my mind disclose,
I must entreat you that I may set downe
The tales of my black fortunes in sad prose:
Rime is vneuen, fashiond by a Clowne:
I first was such a one, I Tild the Ground,
And amongst Ruralls verse is scarcely found.

Well, tell thy tales: but see thy prose be good:
For if thou Emphase which once was rare,
And of all English Phrase the life and blood,
In those times for the fashion past compare,
Ile say thou borrowest, and condemne thy Stile:
As our new sooles, that count all following vile.

B 3

 \mathbf{Or}

THE STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF T

The Ant, and the Nightingale.

Or if in bitternes thou raile like Nash,
Forgiue me honest Soule, that tearme thy phrase
Rayling, for in thy workes thou wert not rash,
Nor didst affect in youth thy private praise:
Thou had ta strife with that Trigemini,
Thou hurtst not them, till they had injurde thee.

Thou wast indeed too slothfull to thy selfe,
Hiding thy better tallent in thy Spleene:
True spirits are not covetous in pelfe,
Youths wit is ever ready quick and keene:
Thou didst not live thy ripened Autumne day,
But wert cut off in thy best blooming May.

Else hadst thou left as thou indeed hast left
Sufficient Test, though now in others Chests
Timproue the basenes of that humorous thest
Which seemes to flow from selfe-conceiving Brests:
Thy name they burie, having buried thee,
Drones eate thy Honnie, thou wert the true Bee.

Peace keepe thy Soule: And now to you Sir Ant,
On with your Prose, be neither rude nor nise,
In your discourse let no Decorum want:
See that you be sententious and concise,
And as I like the matter, I will sing
A Canzonet to close vp every thing.

With

With this, the whole Neaft of Ants hearing their fellow was free from danger, like Comforters when Care is ouer, came with great thankes to harmeles Philomel, and made a Ring about her and their restored friend, seruing in stead of adull Audience of Stinkards fitting in the Penny-Galleries of a Theater, and yawning vpon the Players, whilft the Ant began to stalke like a three Quarter sharer, and was not afrayde to tell tales out of the villainous schoole of the world, where the Diuell is the Schoolemaister, and the Vsurer the vnder Vsher, the Schollers yong-dicing Landlords, that passe away three hundred Acres with three Dice in a Hand, and after the decease of so much Land in mony, become sonnes & Heires of Baudy-houses: for it is an easie labour to finde Heires without Land, but a hard thing indeed, to finde Land without Heires : but for feare I interrupt this small Actor in lesse then Decimo Sexto, I leave, and give the Ant leave to tell his Tale.

The day and the Nielwoodel Wilh this then had a Medit of Ana home their fellow whitestry a lander, the Committee, when Care is bucc. e the west free this wife of the form of the said while a week of the said while a Here acomine and the series of breef breef from the series if a de la Aradista de la maistra de la constitución de la compresenta del compresenta del compresenta de la compresenta de la compresenta de la compresenta del co le les ota I bester, unil variant visen du l'in ces, will l' the And begins to Rolles II a represent Paneter Indian when the detected the cateofine value on amous Chooleed the old, where the Datellin the Telecol moulder, and the Line Prince under Viller & e Schotte Sworn, dicing Land. and some particular trans builded A des Suchellies Die in a Hant and arise the december of innels Land in money. become formes & blomes of Bandy bontos: for it is an eather Inhour to finde Hierar without Land, but a hard thing in head, to made Land wie out Plaires that for for el it. temper this finall A flor in lette then Decimo Sexia, I leading and give the Amiliane to tell his I ale. Service Committee The state of the s and the second of the second of the second

A CONTRACTOR OF THE PROPERTY O

AND THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY O

Contract to the traction of the second

The Ant, and the Nichingale. 意思の意思 our tolune the gilbers mence fores fines : 1103 that and yadl often dia gill a this chief and grain our one fines t nild net, much phice excitent Lucal Paint ma Poire gentle promational lapse concitioned, rather promis and same the act Tale, when he was at sid trait to paid sach various living Plough-man. Long Long trans

Was fometimes (most chaste Lady Nightingale, ozrather Ducene Philo-mell the ranght) a brown welting hal bend man : to be man and halband, is to be a page repayder of many rich cares coupled if he cannot fubica and tiene fander , tie must latie for ener to milets disamples inderegoed and many mileties ; he the cores of his peares contains minutes thich aman 3 was, and luch a bulband, for I was incht in chaniage, my hauings was mall, and my meanes leffer pet charge came on mes ere I knew holpsplaces treet mas all my inocuours, has a plough and Laure to amploy it. Firtill enbugh it is were manured, and (a) tillage. I was never belos Dirmontin en siat oriot banco

Imne

But my beffendion and thermine of all paintfull bulband. men about me, began by the pronigal potonetall of invigoring Landlord, inholefather, grandlather, and great Grandlather for many Generations havene Bows of the Council whering I divelt, and many other Courses nière avioyang to all inhich the lough large Commonwood the country of the page, libertie of lithing, helpe of fineth, which the country of the page, Derpengen all the old benomer of vertue, hone die and goo Aciabbourhan Death, have and opril amitolobusing after his lape to bichis lo consultant, that ensult one knowed the way though they make finall a commodit. Reneting he vio, and as town or he was laid in his Ocale. The Bell might feel his town by Happitality and you bon keeping to whether t towid to the privately and soo how keeping; to two court they fell fick with him and dies, and so were burden. I know not that I am fure in our towns they were never frene fines: not that can beare with any other part; elegically about by they are impossible to be found. Each, our Landbya being dead, we have his Peire gentle prough and fayze conditioned, rather promifing at first his father's bertues, then the worlds billanies, but he was to accultomed to will and butcuitfull company about the Court and London, Whither he was fent by his lober far ther to practice Civilitie and maners) that in the Country he work (carce kiepe,) till his fathers body was lago in the cold Carth, but as some as the hastic funerall loss blevings from he be police , wilcharging all his vie fathers fernants (whole life was were even frost bitten with Age) and was at tended onely by a Monkey and a Marmolet; the one being as fill fac's fellow, as variable as Petrolangle for fathions; the s ther an imitator plany thing bow over villamous; but offerly believe of all godnes; with this French Page and Italicanate Hervingman, was over young Landlord on the water offered with the ferroll of the charges in formal and to be seen the charges in formal and the formal and and all to laur charges in Greeningmen, to pay it out in Pat-lots, and inepaze menhad nelves of a farre greater expense within leffe then a Quarter : for we were lent to to London, and found our great Landlezo in a little Mo Strand, who told be, that whereas we had timed Cenants at will, and might in his fozefathers vayes bene housely turno.

out, be putting on a vetter Confesence to 85 ward, intended to wake be leafer for yeares; and for addice third him and be, he bad made chayfe of a Lawyer, a Mercer, and a Merchant, to had much beholding, inhothat morning were applicable in the characters. ointed to meete in the Lemple Church, Aetiple & Church, othore in manne, made be hope of a holy meeting, but there is noto proner be The neuren the Church, the farther from God. To approve to hich faying, the met the Wercer and the Wercer and the West peat man is both their 16 mines; four title conference they t

The thit and the Dighthugala

to hal the conclusion was, the pion in its were not yet bequality to with but being called their legities; and where he pickers to wine together at this space in fleetstrict, being a book to here their Latoyer releases; and if it we would there latter to them, we thould traver they have matter much for our good and in the means time they appointed be nære the old Meniple Garben to attend their Counseller, whole name was Misister Pro/puro, not the great River of hopes, for I heard there was once such a one, but a more comming. River, who have the many mentill they were more milerable them the calls. I was our ill hap it was to proceed his Packneys: well, cough the illustwees ill, won the went to awaite his Worlhip, whale charther we found that morning faller of Clients, then I could rair falluppliants to Unaven in our poseparith Church, and yet to the had in it these hundred boulholds: and I may tetic both tencernie, I never fattimose followillion done to God, then to that great Lawperstuere Sur ter there offered gold to this got ned Jod, Kanding bare heavering there let morning; for it was in boted Wichelmas Dearme and not a word spoke to him but it was with bowing of the 15000, and the submillive a pure of the king short Tale to make, he will informed of he, what we well, and ofour comming by, when with an few loke, and Christinice, he beganto speake to the richest of our number, ever and anon, per king out the word Fines, which served in Acad of a full point to energ Bentence, : the florid word all tooks souded at his

But that word Fines was no fine word me thought, to please page laboring hulbandinen, that can karre iweate out so much in a twelve month, as he would demand in a twink ling; at last so close up the lamentable Aragropot in Ploughs were enters our young Landlord; so wetamorphosed into the space of a French Buppet, that at the first we started, and thought one of the Bahomes had marcht in in many Apparel, his bead was upskup in white freathers like a Shuttle Cock, which agreed to wel with his brains, being nothing but Corke, that thought with Battletores, and made god sport with him in west Hall this boublet was at a fixing Co on Parpaged it would have call this spreade by day-light this was a little and terming to apply the festion notes, was an little and terming to apply the festion from the from the nave ment to the out of fing land, they beamproples they are been line and the apply they are they are the apply they are wonder to la lucre tel as despe as tho muddle of fointer, or the Roade-way betineene Landon and Winchester, and folarge and wine with all, that I thinks duthin a Allegiue, moneth, he might bere well put all his than pain them; and then you may tenague they were vig enough, when they would out reach a thousand Acres: Poseonat whey differn to farre from our tim thinns: Pole in the Country; name from his fathers old Will copies; that his backs: part formed to be like a Pontrer; the object the Breches standing sclowe, that we content to about of Affice foir Reverence, stad in his hams. Alichid while his French Poukey boss his Cloake of three pounds a ears, times cleans through with purple Meluet, which divis earle our course Open, that his thought we thould have being rblings such afters what with the probligal aspect of that, as to glorious Mapier of Bangers, all both with Politars of Balte, fairer in spotne then the Pillars in Powles, of the Combus at Westminstern : before it oranks to the price of all my plangly land, in very pearle, which stack as thick by on those Pangers, as the white speakills boon hogs fleth : when 3 hav i who that gate gampy Cloake, and thole buttering walffull. Bangers. 3 muttered thus to my felfe that is no Cloake for the Capue fure, 1103 thole no Pangers for Derick : when of a fabraine calling mine eyes lower, I behelt activious payer of Sotes of thing Philips leather, in such artificall mainchies, it is and pleats, as if they had bene Carcht lately, and came no from the Laundreffes, fuch was my ignorance and finishes posinfance with the fathion; and I vare fineare my felicinate and materials. en pere, are all as ignozant as my felfe; but t bich Artick be molt into acquiration, topon these fantaltical

C 2

The dritt and the Alightingale. his three, that has be finome, no characteristic thus our party attention thus our such and house finds the constant and this body might bare with home famile daily a police constant in the bottes? Laftly, he walke the chamber with fuch a pelittent Gragte, th his sours anatique all the Lawysto, and must him reach this potentiam notes, about his feet i but after live had spice the Koinles of his Sources, how inchieft our felice, they bit to much and to four exceed the compating courtainion, that they lost more like the topernamers of topele-barroives; thus to us our named Laudian accoultred; in fact, a france and proble gall Chaps, that it automated to about amorpowers rest arappet tell. It last approach the Aperter and the Apetchant two water the Arch Academens, hope had fitted supremy Apidites in Coathes a while they have closed on them there in his Actes and measured him and its livet by the Albombe, while it they recoined his all encucions by bandialis a for he had not to many yords in his lines, as they had pure and hences bound to the Mayneth: which some befores fracts to pallegues to them, or elle allips Lands Cours be to putilicis bodie, cum to their for feiting neck beels formy panality impreshed his Produce nothic a Contiemen Benfisner, but like allemien an Syoti ners inhenetopon entred Paiffer Hursbellene Royal is considered for the purpose; he was a Caliant Probe Fremember, his quelle la mount en bestweens his Care has a Colore Can , but rot tharg'd yet, till our yong Paikki planking my that aff topled to so some third parker an hower after; by this time the Latto yet the Aparent, and the Perchant, were while time and some lifting together, about the wattings and pallage of the lamb, the bary been and labor conference; but our Wille-acres aft the while, as one regardeds of either land or moup, not heartaining or inquifiting after their labbill and politick benices, helphing felf bery bulls about the humbig of his wabarro pipe (as there is no Callant but hath a Pipe to burne about London) though we page limple men mour hear of the name till that time, ine and he might very little take Tabacco there for the Lit yezand the rell made him (monke already: but to have noter the Apilh bunio; of him;) and the fautaltical faces he cound in the receiving of the finoalie, it would have made your Lavi thip have lung nothing but merry Jigs to; a twelve-month at ter: one time winding the Pipe like a Borne at the Pie-cor not of his mouth, tubich must needs make him loke like a botton gelber, and another time scruing his face like one of our Countrie Players, which mult needs make him loke like a folesmay, he had at least his dozen of Faces, but never a got one amongst them all another his fathers face, not the face of his grandfather, but yet more wicked and riotous faces, then all the generation of him retold their privile whilprings and billate nous falots began to be training to a conclution fuhan prefent ly they cald our functive Landlock in the middle of his draught who up a valient humor ballet his Dabacco pipe into the chimmey-comer: whereat Affarted, and bekning his Marmo fertome, alute him if those long white things oid cost no mo ney: to which the Caue replied hery proudly. Hong! Pes lives but I fail the my Pailler Koms to bave a thing come twice to be mouth. Then (quoth I) I thinke the Pailles is mos chayce in his mouth, then in any member elle : it were govil be pled that all his Body outri, he would never have nev a many gollants have, of any fiventing Philick, is weating Ph fick replyed the Marmoler, what may thy meaning ber with Doe not you Blough montmeate to spen quoting, mult of ng men living ? but yet there is difference between the livent of a Plough-man, and the liveat of a Gentleman, as much as between your Pailters apparell and minesto, when we liveate the land prolocis, and the Paraeli comes in that when a Benderman (wents, I wot how the give goes then, Polomer were thele words spoken, but the Marmofet had brawne out hi Doninco baile way, to make a thows of revenges but at the mart boice of the Lawyer be automainly subject it in against Poin was our youg Mailler with one pen-full of Juck, veing a face greater exploye then all his forefathers; to, tohat they CLULUS .

were apprehasing all their life time, he inavitate patting always in the foorth part of a minute: and that which many thousand brops of his Grandsathers browes his painefully firine to; one property of a formances Jack-history oto easily palle over. A dath of a pen from for a thousand Acres; how quickly they were bally in the mouth by our young Landozos provigalific it from he made no more account of Heres then of Acornes; then inversive caln, to let out hands for thistelfes of his folly studied; we past men via withesset much already; and because we were some ignorant in writing; and never practice in that black Act, which I might very fitty tearne so; because it cons inere a to deale any marke with a pen which thould fignific as much as the belt hand that ever old Peter Bales hung out in the old Baily: to conclude, I take the pen first of the Lawret, and turning it artie berlie, dike no Inflrument to: a Ploughman, our youngiver and the rest of the Faction burst into. laughter at the simplicitie of my fingering; but 3 not fosimple. as they laught me for, a rein the picture of a knamin Emblem, a which was, A Plough with the hecles voward: fignifing thereby, that the world was turns oplice powne, fince the new crafe of my old Landoad: all hospitality and god houskeeping kickt out of owers, althritimes and good bulbanory tolt into the Ayre, Plaughs turno into Erunko, and Corne into Apparell: then came another of our bulbano-men to fet his marke by mine, be boloing the Ben cleans at the one live, towards the sperchant, and the spercer, the wing that all went on their : thes, drew the forme of an bubrioled Colt, formily and buruly, at he formed with one fate to high up the earth, and spoile the labours of many toying Beafts; which was fitly alloch to ear with and onbridge Landlord; which the Collection Kand by an acquire, till be had no ground to Kand by an. Their marks let deliver buder the thape of Amplicity, were the less marks with the eyes of knauery for they like decane that the Plough-men could have formuch shatyre in Usas till our young Laurings by the Cibolog : Well this care Brings

Chief Coccidence is looks blogarily. builbatio, behand Royalla chant: And now 3 talks of Calaen-Irin, via great pittie, Many ! Nightingale, that the fune of harmic fir and imposent Beaffe, ate to foothe villain failth elder beathous fishi Hopeockes in the mette of the Law strip senter for one of the execute Foldies to little through the half hole of a netter, then i tank paparahing Lawren began to resterat groto word Fines, behech fleuck fo chili to not hearts, that it mabethent as cold as our hales, sobich iverealwood from to the Cope with Can-Ding Area quothabt. Detubant and the Aberer, you are now Actuals of ours, likthe right, title, acid interest of this young Continuent from fate Hand ford) bee are firmely policited of as you goar felaes are witnesses: wherefore this is the conclus-Com of our meeting, fuch Fines as mailler Profpero bere by the baluation of the land, thall out of his proper invigement allotte be, fuch are the to bemaund at your hands, therefore his referre you to him to mayte his answere, at the Gentles bell time and tealine; with that they Aifeles two or their And gels in the Latogers righthanteright hand fain 3 ! which hand was that trower pie ? for it is impossible to know which is the right hand of a Lawret , because there are but felo Lawrers that haveright bames, and those lewe make much of thous. A taking their leaves of my yong Landstoid that tous, and that neverthall be agains ratury they murched beamer by athous fait Acres at their parting, then they were before at their nicting. Whe it always then turning his Initiates to be turne, will be to aften his morthip. The night we drawe, to her this hand fulling traditionally pleafance we pare loades that her his language and pain his his Newy life. Degraphen in Articles er desemble desternant yethicke for a fulle and are distour indictioning him is carry himself oppose proviotatie, their the other se pak in sublint Disconsistificately buttomany Gallantscorth Bunes Innes of court, except rank with finderbat spend most, alwaiss wearing a boundfull disposition about him, lostes and liberall: his lodging must be about the Strand in any case, being consote from the Panoi-trast cent of the Little; his eating must be in some famous Lauerne, as the Horne, the Myter, 02 the Mer-maide, and then after hinner, he must benture beyond sea, that is, in a choice paire of Poble-mens Dares to the Bank-side, where he work it out the breaking op of a Comedie, or the first cut of a Aragedie; or rather (if his humour to farme him) to call in at the Black-tryers, where he hould be a neall of Royes, as hie to rabilly a man. A his laid, our poung Doig, cap lishe was reaste to embrace such counsell, thankt him tor his fatherly and monthloris. (as he termed them) and told him agains, that he thould not know him both the breach of any of them: supering thould not finde him with the depend of any account wearing and polecting he would keepe all thole, botter than the ten Commandements. At which mash he buckled on his Rapier and Bangers, his Monkey-laje eafting on his cloake by the poke: after an Apilly congoe of time, patied bowns canges with our either word or not to be, his oid fathers Cenants: Development either word or not to be, his oid fathers Cenants: Development the letter, we followed him (like in many rullet ferning men) to thetette, the followed him (like in mally curre leading than) to the enemit of all, and what the like mould come (m; luben of a indden he was encountred by a most glosious (pangled Gallant, which we take at first to have bene fome hystar; Maylo; because he measured all his hood much a salutation. Arom the some of the White!, to the fall of the Macches, but at last we found him to be a very fantaffical sopunge, that licked by all humans the bery and of fashions, getture, and complement, humours the pery Ape of lathious, getture, and complement, one of thole indeed (as the learned afterward) that led upport your Larre-1070s, epotous formes and herres, till either be, 02 od (malloined them b would not mak to be Balod, at Relate as our young Dendeman on Barlots with them to be Walter at the Barlots of Barlots at a lupper at the common Molls neither and ng Cheater, a his Mortous Contractice, a being slaves? EDD CATE brother raine away with all the land, and the pore Squalles with a little many, which cannot hold out long without forms commisses in, but they will rather benture a Maidenhead then want a lacabeyse; fuch shuttle-cockes as their which though they are tofte and playor withall, goe like Maires all white on the top: or elle decayed . nitlemens wines, whole hulbands (pose loules) lying to pebt in the Unigs. Wench, they goe about to make montlers in the Unigs-head Canerne : for this is a generall Apiom: all your lugarious plots are alwayes begun un Maurines, to be ended in vauxing houles, and after supper when truite comes in , there is final fruite of honestie to be loved to be lov with this looking so wagnerer and admirable Theater, /who had lupt by most of our beires about London, like pochtigges flips into White Fryers Punnery, bihereas the report went, he kept his most belieute Deab, of these honored a pears: some bully after Dentlemans vaughter, who had morgaged his law to Secturners, sure inpugh some reasoning agains: he sauch the sames by ber bringing op, though lette by her caesting between a smooth the loans (as incheard) with some god qualities, though all wore concerted then but to starting villagues: the could runne open the Late bery well, which in others wies: the could runne open the Late bery well, which in others would have appeared bettuous, but in her lasting running was rather tested at because the was a line besides; the had likewise the gist of languag perp his to charme the hearer; which to bewitcht away our young spainers mone, that he might have kept leven polic of spain hans top lette charges, and yet they would have find to; were ningment to, having bleto coates of their owns; the had a humaneur to life often, like a flattring wanton, and talke childiff, tike a Parlons daughter; which is pleased and incapt of thing but flucte meates: and her breath th e obour, that it perferred his b Cheater , e his glaybus Cockatrice, e bei byon dinner-time, we hied by and toke our cepall, at theith pother Walkers, where we found a whole neaft of purchi atchelars, crowded together open formes and Benches, that most wardipfull A har-balle peny D dinary: where pre-lently they were border, with hat Chamber Porton and Por-ridge (A French-man by his blokping) e next to tham, we were ferned in order, where one taking their degree: And I tell you true. Lavie, I have knowne the crine, when our young Land-loses father hath bene a three-halfpeny-eater there: nay more, was the first that arquointed be with that sparing and theistic Dedinarie, suben his reptous souns bath since spent his fine gound at a Atting. Wel having disparged our smal spot which was like Paile Spot, in respect along young Pailters Cannon-reckonings in Aspernes) we ployded home to our Ploughs, carrying their beaugineines to our liques, both of the proving little of our all Land-lords forme, as also of our oppushions to come by the burthen of bushautable since. And most musical Papares Nightingale. Doe but imagine now, what a Christman wealkest in the Countrie butbout either Cares wallels Bowles. Councing of Ballingers round in Apolitic mights about Papelboles, Shown the Pare, Boom. blind, Pot-cockies, spans of our old Chailmas Cambol not so much as choosing king and Ducene, on Awelsemi such was the buines of our pleasures, for that one word Fines,

This folice facil Chailmas thus impleatantly past over, by agains in a trotted to London, in a great Frost (Frement ber) for the ground was as hard as the Lawyers Conscience; and arriving at the luvurious Strand, some three dayes before the Tearms, we inquired for our bountiful Land-lozd, or the Fole in the full, at his neate and eprious Longing but answers was made to by an old Chamber mains, that our Gentleman stept not there all the Chaisman time, but had bene at Court, and at least in five Walkes, marry now as the thought, we might find him at Patter Poopes his Dedinary, with halfe a dozen of Gallants more, at Dice. At Dice! at the Divell, and the Gallants more, at Dice. At Dice! at the Divell, pioth I for that is a Dicers last types: here I began to rayle the Theiri. Nath, against Gabriell Harrier, if you call that tayling, yet I thinke it was but the canning a Likes wite in Balte fellets haps, on both these articles of Paules Churchiyard: and I wonoze hour lokal teapt temperature? Louis when your same of the Daniel temperature? Louis when the work of the days of the Daniel temperature? There of the work of the days of the Daniel of the land to the land to the land the land to the land the l Richies our describing the Whe, and which the Pore were a the cones, for the other belitte han ergod with him; and make a Dall of him when the Police of the Denistry with and they work Chines, the best the Police of the Denistry warned him) Aroth god fit lower, for him him and him a troth god fit lower, for have named fire that the standard Denistry have have had the that the standard Denistry had the standard the standard process. max limit, at pallage I meant; to, I panell, I have the by my left as a beaute operationed. Interfere to be eating of the paleoned Crowner, and which plants and they all maves in I paleoned by the entone of bleath Pangers, new sales to the to the paleone without ceases, in I sole to the to the eath was eat an op the transmission without ceases, in I sole to the to the total that the eath and the bearing to the total that the eath to a part of the total bearing, and this in the eather total a trailed an eath of patiens of the were, we hould have thought the Dinels had bene at Wire in an Optimary: the first that appeared to be was our most factorizable Landozd, diest by in his Monkies livery cloake, that he famed now rather to wait by an his Monkie, then his

Sponky beon him, which die fet fath his Sattin-fate fo excel lent fourtily, that he loke to all the world like a french Lord in warty botes : when calling his eye boon his, being betterels (as it famed) to cemeinber be now it the had any mong, braits into these fantallical speches; Cothat my whole warren of Tenants thinking inver to make Conics of bs : my hones nett of Plough-men, the onely lings of Kerit: Poze vice ho; plaith let's have another carete, and bonnit the dice in a hand agains will stor that I plucks his humor at one for and for him, we were inver his lathers Wenants, but his we were losy in were not : and as for mony to maintaine his Dice, we had not fufficient to finite out the Lawyer. Then replyed our Gallant is a rage, tolling out two or this new minter Daths, thele Plaugh men are Politicians I think, they have wit the whore fone; they will be Arnants I perfecte longer then we thall be Landlogos; and fame he would have Awaggero with 65, but that his weapons were at pawne! to marching out like atterns Bentleman , the rell of the Ballants feene to catheare bill and this window of their company like a blanke Die, the one balling no black Péepes, not be no white Pietes; Poto was madely and halling no manufacture of the Protegan; and halling no renticts gather wow he gather by is wiften about hint, making oblernation, that your Sonness and Penes, prous filosine will men, til they have no more latin then the compate of their spoules. To conclude, within label dayes practile, he was its folute in theating, and as exquited in pandardime, the people tript al Greenes Bokes, Of the Art of Conie-catching: and where befoze he maintained his ED zab he made his ED zab now maintagne him: proued the onely true Captains of Caulting-houses, and the valiant Champion against Contravies and Searchers; feeding boon the Anne of white-Argers, Witchtbatch, and Murne bol fireet: Pay, there was no lantien now, but he could melt him away into mothing : and to twelne-month make bim hold all his land betweene his legs, and yet but Arapple easily neither. Ha wealthy lours of the

The first of the second of the Citie, but within lette the a quarter, be could make all his flock not weath a Zearlie Cockin : he was all that might be in diffor lute billainy, and nothing that should be in his fore-fathers had effic. To speake troth, we bid so much blush at his life, and were to afhamed of his bale courses, that ener after we loathed to loke after them. But returning to our Aubble-bairve Laws ger, who reapt his beard enery Eerme time, (the Lawyers: arnest) we found the Mercer and the Merchant, crowded in his Stepie, amongst a company of Law-bokes, which they infled to often with their Cor-combes, that they were almost together by the eares with them, when at the light of he they toke an Habes Corpus, eremonde their bodies into a bigger Kome: but there we lingered not long for our torments, for the Mercer e the Merchant, gave fire to the Lalvyers tongue with a rope of Angels, and the wood fines went off with fach a pointer, that the force of it blew is all into the Countrey, quite changes our Plough-mens thapes, and so we became little Ants againe, (mai) minuted series for for set , mainstree &

This, Padame Nightingale, is the frue discourse of our Murall fortunes, which how miserable, inzetched, and full of oppellion they were, all Pulband meas brows can withelie that are Lines with more tweat, till years by years, and 3 hope a Canzonet of your finet finging, buil let them forth to the

The remozecfull Nightingale, belighted with the Ants quaint discourse, began to tune the Instrument of her boyce, breathing forth these lines, in Sweet and delicious Aires, theyet at Greenes Emertin () the Arrot Con-c-circlines and mon des Ci vill a The Nightingales Gaugemet, an atorad adapted

Porelittle Ant, I sun giano sul danoig; tula sugainina

thoughait not want to immig D Innilad aft dua , ailmoil

The rauisht Musicke of my voyce a missel a missel and the col

Chape is belt, or sand, you is an all the broad R day, that if Forgreat Ones fall with greater noy fe And this shall be the Marriage of my fong, Small Bodies can have but a little wrong.

Now

Now thou art securer,
And thy dayes farre surer,
Thou pai'st no Rent vpon the Racke,
To dawbe a prodigall Land-lords backe:
Or to maintaine the subtil running
Of Dice and Drabs, both one in cunning:
Both passe from hand to hand to many.
Flattring all, yet false to any:
Both are well linckt: for throw Dice how you can,
They wil turne vp their Peepes to enery man.

Happie art thou, and all thy brothers.

That neuer feelst the Hell of others.

The torment to a Luxur due,

Who neuer thinkes his Harlot true,

Although vpon her heeles he stick his eyes,

Yet stil he feares, that though she stands, she lyes.

Now are thy labours easie,
Thy state not sicke or quealie,
All drops thou sweatst are now thine owne,
Great Subsidies be as virknowne
To thee, and to thy tittle fellow Ants,
Now none of you under that burthen pants.

Loe for example, I my selfe, poore wormes,
That have out-worne the rage of Terem stormes:
Am ever blest now in this downy shape,
From all mens trechery, or soule-melting Rape:
And when I sing Terem, Terem
Through every Towne, and so renew
The name of Terem, slaves through seares,
With guiltie Fingers bolt their eares:
And all rausshers do rave, and e'en fall mad,
And then such wrongd soules as my selfe are glade.

Se

The Ant and the Nightingale, So thou small wretch and all thy Nest, Are in those litle bodies blest: Plan thou art focurer, Not taxt beyond your poore degree, and and and With Landlords Fine and Lawyers Fee. But tell me prety-toiling worme, and the bornes with of Did that same Plough-mans weary formening of the Discourage thee so much from others, drad has all of That neither thou, nor those thy brothers, in the lang most In borrowed shapes durst once agents alleling the grantel H Venture among le perfidious ment vent indentition out the & They wil christ vo their Pectallo enery man Yes Lady, the poore Am replied, Ileft not fo, but then I tried i lin han , work masique! I Wars sweating Fortunes not alone filed reman and T Condemning rash all states for an en of the minor of T Vitill I found by proofe, and knew by course, won only That one was bad but all the rost were worked yours A. Yet the heferres, that though the flands, the lyes. Nightingale. Now are thy labours e A happie state, because thou fought's gainst men? Prethee discourse, thy fortunes, state and harmes? Thou wast no doubt A mighty man at Amnes ? out of T Now none of you under that burtlen pants. Log for example, I my felfe, poore wormes That have out-worne the rage of Terens Ik nes : Am euer bleft now in this downy thape, From all mens trechery, or foole melting Rapes And all ravidhers do rave, and o'en fall mad,

And then fuch wrongd foules as my felfe are glad.

The Ants Tale when he was 人間は、人がと、人が、これがいうかいとうないとうかっているかいとうかい

and the constant of the consta

of

Hen thus; Poll mulicall and prickle-linging Pavame, (for if I erre not, your Laviship was the first that brought by Parick long, being nothing elle but the fatall notes of your pittifull rauithment): I not contented long, (a vice cleaning to all weeldlings) with this little efface of an Ant, but fruft with enule and ambition, as finall as 3 was, befired to benture into the world againe, which I may rather tearme the opper Well or Frigida Gehenna, the colo-charitable Deli, toherein are all kind of Divels to, as your gentle Divel, your opinarie Divel, and your gallant Divel, and all thefe can change their thapes to: As to bay in cowardly tohite: to morrow in politicke black: A third day in lealous gallow, for believe it, sweete Lady, there are Divels of all colours : neuerthelesse I covetous of moze change, leapt out of this litle fkin of an Ant, and hung my fkin on the heage, taking byon me the griffy thave of a buffy Soul-Dier; well mave I was, and my limbes valiantly between out for the purpole: I had a Mazarn I remember, so well timbe in the infine with my Brains, it from me in better fread then a bomble head-piece, for the braine of a Souldier differing from al other Sciences, converts it felle to no vie, butto line, fur;and even quilt the Coricombs, and in makes a pate of profe: my face was well levend, which made my lokes falle fourze, the frue rellift of a man of war: my thekes, one batte pale, war, and therefore argued valour and resolution : but mp note somes what bard bakte, and a little burnt in the Duen: a property not amiffe in a Soulviers visage, who flould frozne to kinth, but in his vole; my chie was well that cht with a beard, which was a necessary shelther in winter, and a My flap in summer: to bruthy and spreading, that my live could scarce be seene to walke abread, but plaine at all his, and burff not peepe forth for Narting a Papze, Woconeline, my Armes, Whies and Lege, were to found, fout, and weighty, as if they had come all out of the Timber, yard: that my very presence onely was able to Will the bawlingst Infantin Europe. And Ithinke Madame, this was no bulikely thape for a bouldier to proue well: here was mettle enough, for foure thillings aweike, to boe baliant feruice, till it was sozed as full of holes as a Scinunce : well, to the wartes I betoike me, tanckt iny felfe amongst besperate Bot hots; onely my carriage put on moze civilitie, for I fee med moze like a Spp, the a follower:an observer, rather then a committer of billaing: and little thought 3 Dadame, that the Campe had bene supplied with Barlots to, as wel as the Cartaine; and the garbed tents as withed as garden Wenements; Truits palling to and from the wallt-thape of Lannozelles, as your Bambes about London in the mariner of Starching. men, which is the most busulpeace habit pean be to traine out a Willrelle. And if your Labifpip will not thinke me much out of the way, though I take a running leap from the Campe to the Strand againe, 3 will oilconer a pretie knauery of the fame becoing, betwiene luch a Starch-woman, and a kine wanton Witcelle, as there are fewe of those ballac'st bellells now as dames but will have a Lone and a bulvand. The woman erps ing her ware by the owe, (a most pittifull cry, and lamentable bearing, that fuch a fliffething as Starch (hould want Tuffomers,) pading cunningly and flily by the fall, not once taking notice of the partie pour wot on, but being by this , some thee or foure thops off, Dalle quoth my young Diffreste to the weather Cocke her hulband, such a thing I want you know: then the name bow many Puffes and Purles lay in a mile rable case for want of ffirning: the honest plaine bealing Iewell ber husband, fent out a Boy to call her : (not Bawbe, by ber right name, but Starchwoman) into the thop the came, making a lowe counterfet curteste, of whom the Miltreste bemaunded, if the Starch were pure geare, and would be fiffe in her Ruffe; laying, the had often bene beceived before, tohen the things about her have And as limber as Cles thing. The woman replyed as subtilly, Wifreste (quoth the,) take this paper of flarch of my hand, and if it prome not to your mind, never beauty peny with me: which paper indeed, was a Letter lent to bet wom the Sentleman her epocation favorite. Say you to (proth the young Dame) and Ale try it yfaith. With that the rains of Kayses like a Spinner, byon brail Cobweb-Ropes, not to trico; arraigne the flarch: but to conflux and perfe the Letter ! while her hulband (at below by the Counter, like one of thele broth bitten Cafebpoles, that waite for one man all day, (when his wife can put flue in the Counter befoze him;) wherein the found many words that pleased her. Withall, the gentleman writ onto her tor a certaine summe of mony: which no loner was read, but was ready to be fent; wherefore laying up the flarch and that, and taking another there of cleans paper in her hand, wanting time and opportunitie to write atlange, with a pen full of Inck in the very mivole of the their , in it thele tewe quaint Spono. fillables Coyne, Cares, and Cures, and all Cees elfeare yours then rowling op the white mong like the Starch in that paper, very fubtilly and artificially, came tripping volune stayles, with these colourable incress Heers goods Starch in beed: Nie, file: trutt me Pulband as vellow as the Jauncise; I mould not have betrayde my Puffes with it for a William: Dere, here, here: (giving her the paper of money) with that the subtill Stared woman, seeming sozy that it pleased her not, told her within sewe dayes the would fit her turne with that which should like her: meaning int to more such sweete newes fermiger Louer. These and hich like Pavame, are the cunning connegances, offecret, printe, and therefore binnoted Warlots, that so anoyde the common finger of the world, when lesse Committees then they are publickely pointed at.

Solikewife in the Campe whither noto 3 returne, bozne on the fwist wings of Appzehention, the habite of a Landzeste, thatowes the abhomintion of a Strumpet : And cur fentoiers are like Glovers, for the one cannot worke well, nor the other fight well without their wenches. This was the first marke of villaing, that Fround Kicking upon the brow of war: But after the hot a flerie copulation of a fkirmith or two, the Devenance Dair playing

とうできないというというというというというないというないのできないというというというと playing like to many Tamburlaines, the Pulkets and Calfo uses animering like Drawers, Anon, Anon fir, I cannot be here and there to: that is, in the Soulviers hand, and in the enemies belly. I grow more acquainted, and as it were entred into the Entrailes of Black-lingry policis. We thought indeed at first, those great pieces of Ordenance Could speake English, though now by transportation turnor Kebels: and what a milerable and pittifull plight it was kady, to have so many thoulands of our men flaine by their owne Country-menths Cannons, 3 meane not the harmelette Cannons of Powles; but those Cannons that have agreat linging in their heads. well in this onfet Aremember A was well impake-bried, but neither Arme nor Legge perifit; not is much as the losse of a petty finger: for when I counted them all ones, I mill not one of them, and get cometimenthe Bullets came within a baire of my Cor-combe, even like a Barber feraching my pate, and perhaps toke away the left limbs of a vermin, and is beparted. Another time Houldzing me like a Bayliffe against Michaelmas Ecrite, and then thaking me by the flene as familiarly as if we had bene acquainted feaven yeares together. Wo comdure they bive me very curteonly and gentleman like awhile, like an old coming Bowler to fetch in a yong ketling Game. Acc., who will fuffer him to win one Six-penny game at the first, and then turch him in Sire pounds afterward: and fothey plaide with me, Will training me (with their faire promiles) in to farre Dieper and Deadlier Battaples, where like villainous cheating Bowlers, they lurcht me of the of my bell Limbes, viz. 199 right Arme, and right Legge, that looks man of war, I became in thew a monter of warre : pet constorted in this, because I knew warre begot many such Monsters as my felfe in lette then a Divine-month . Pow 3 could discharge no moze, having paide the that beare enough 3 thinke, but rather Delirbe to be vischargbe, to haue Day and be gone : whereupon 3 appeared to my Captaine and other Commanders, killing X my left hand which then Koo for both; (like one Actor that plaies two Parts luko leems to pittie my buiognted fortunes; and baliant fernics in their anomietage, marry as for Pay, they most goe on the fcore with me, for all their money was thumpt out in Powber: And this was no pleasing salue for a greens fore Padame: twas to much for me, Lady, to trust Caliners with my Limbes, and then Canaderes with my mony. Penericale (for all my lamentable Action of one Arme like old Titus Andronicus) I could purchate no more then one months Pay, so a ten-months paine and perili, nor that neither; but so concep away my miserable clansours that lay roaring against the Arches of their Cares, marry their bountiful favours were extended thus sarre: I had a Parsport to beg in all Countries.

Waell, away I was packt, and after a fewe miferies (by the way) at late 3 fet one fote into England againe, (for 3 hav no more then to (et) being my Patine, though unnaturali Countrey, for whole beare god I palonbe my Limbes to Bullets; those mercilelle 1820kers, that will take the bauntage of a mis nute, and fother were quite forfeited, lott, and bureconerable: toben Tivas on Soboare, the prople gathereb, which ward gathering, put me in hope of god comfort, that afterward I faile of: for I thought at first they have gathered fome thing for me, but I found at last they did onely but gather about me : Some fuonding at me , as if I had bene forne Sea monfter caff a Shoare: forme iefting at my deformitte, whilst others laught at the Jeftes; Dae amongst them I remember likener me to a Sea-Crab, because I went all of one fine, another fellow open and laid, I lokte like a Rabbit cut by and halfe caten : because my wing and legge (as they tearmoe it) were beparted; forme began to pittie me, but those were fewe in number; szat x least their pittie was as permiles, as Pierce, who wait to the Dinell for maintenance. Thus passing from place to place, like the Botion of Julius Cafar , or the Citie Niniue, though . not altogether in fo god cloathes: 3 overtoke the Citie from whence I bogrowed my first breath, and in whose befonce I frent and laybe out my Limbes by whole furnities, to purchase ber peace and happinelle; nothing poubling but to be well entreated.

C 3

The state of the second second reased there, any gricuous maymes tenderly regarded, my the police ediate carefully repayzed, the Ruines of my bloolettle by agains with redselle and comfost ! 18ut woe the while Parame, I was not onely, impittier, fuccourleffe, and refecter, but threatner with the Poulicke Stocks, louthlome Jayles, and countion lubipping Polls, there to receive my pay, (a godly retvare for bleeding Service) if I were once found in the citie agains.

Therefore, I was forest to retire towards the Spittle, and Shore-ditch, which as it appeared was the onely Cole-harbor and Sanctuarie for Wenches and Souldiers ! tohere 3 toks by a pose longing a trult, till the Sunday : hoping that then Paitter Almes and Bittreffe Charitie would walke abroad, and take the Aire in Finsbury.

M which time I came hopping out from my Longing like old lame Giles of Criple gate: but when I came there; the winde blew to bleake and cold, that I began to be quite out of sope of Charitie : yet, like a tome Pap of milery, I waited my fingle Palfe penny fortunes, when of a luodaine forning my felfe about, and loking bolone the Winomill-Will, I might es for a farre off, a Fine falhiono Dame of the Citie, with her coan bound by Inventer before her; whom no loner I caught in mine Exe-livs, but I made to with all pollible speede; and with a premeditated speech for the nance, thus most Souldierlike A accoffed her. and Benerin becar biete Lavy, I befeth your Beauty, to weigh the effate of a page baloguted Souldier, that bath confound the Boity, or the one halfe of his limbs in the difmembring and denouring warres, that bath cheated me of my Fleth lo notozioully, I protest 3 am not worth at this instant the small Revenely of their farthings ; beside my Longing, unplease, and my Diet inlatilited: and hav I ten thouland Limbes I would bentuce! them all in your sweet Quarrell; rather then such a Beauty as your felle thould want the least limbe of your befire : with that as one being rather moued by my last words of promise, then mp fire toozos of pitty; the varto her white bountiful hand out of her Mary-Muffe, and quoited a fingle Balle-peny, whereby I knews her then to be colo Milirelle Charity, woth by har chilappearance, a the hard frozen Bention the gave me : the was lapt Fremember, from the tharpe iniary of the viting Aire, ber bigage was benighted with a Maffaty Malke; to fray away the naughty wind from her face; and yet her bery note feemed fo tharpe with colo, that it almost bozde a hole quite through. This was froit bitten Charity her teeth chaterd in her head, and leapt by and bowne like Miginall-Jacks: which betraico likewife who the was: and you would have broke into infinite laughter SB adame (though miferie made me leaden and vene fine had you bene prefent to baur feene how quickly the Buffs swallowed her hand againe, for no somer was it drawne forth to dop downe her pittifull Almen (but for feare the Sunne and Aire (hould have ravicht it) it was extempoze whipt by againe. This is the true picture of Charity Babame, which is as colo as Ice in the misole of July.

Mell still I waited for another Fare; but then I bethought my selfe againe, that all the Fares went by water, a Sundayes to the Beare-baiting: 4 a Mandayes to Westminster-Hall: and therfore little to be lock for in Moore fields all p week long.

Meretoze I fat downe by the Kailes there: and fell into these pallionate, but not rading speches: Is this the farcell restore to are so a Souloier? Is A clour a Kasolution the two Champions of the Soule, so Usightly estremed and so basely undertage lued? both realing Fortune not onely rob us of our Limbes, but of our living? Are Souldiers then both soo sor Lamon and sor milerie? but then in the mids of dippassion, calling to memorise preview turnes of many samous populer. Dullants, whose names were write even burn the Part of the world it could not so much as thinks without them, nor speake but in the discourse of them) I began to out over the very work of cruell a visiter chances: and determined to be constant in calamitie, a valuant against the Battering Siege of misery: but note the cross such that alwaies bogo my Fortunes. I had not long resent there, but I saw the Tipetring Calable of Finsbury with his beach of browne bilmen making towards me; meaning indeed to from some Pailon hole with mis (as your bouldiers when the wars baue bone with them, are goo for nothing else but to Rop holes with all) : at which light, I ferambled by of all two, toke my fain off the bedge, coulied the Cunstable, and fitnt into an Ant againe.

くうできないとうのできないとうというできないのできないのできないというできない。

The Nightingale.

Oh twas a prety quaint deceite, (The Nightingale began to fing) To flip from those that lie in waite, Whose touch is like a Rauchs wing, Fatall and ominous, which being spread, Ouer a mortall, aimes him dead.

Alas poore Emmet thou wa'ft toft In thousand miseries by this shape: Thy colour wasted, thy bloud lost, Thy limbes broke, with the violent Rape Ofhot impatient Cannons, which defire To rauish lifes, spending their lust in fire,

Oh what a ruthfull fight it is, to fee Though in a Souldier of the mean'st degree, That right member perisht, Which thy body cherisht: That Limbe disseuered, burnt, and gon, Which the best part was borne vpon; And then the greatest ruth ofall, Returning home in torne estate: Where he should rise, there most to fall, Trod downe with enuie, bruisde with hates Yet wretch, let this thy comfort be, That greater wormes have farde like thee. Sel Sel

Mention in the state of the second So here thou leful bloom Thy lournies thorough man; These two cross shapes so much oppress.

Did hay thy weaknes from the rest. O Madame, once agen my pleene did this ?.

To try the third, which makes men bleft or curit: That number Three many Stars wayte vpon,
Vihering electe Hap, or black confusion:
Once more I venturde all my hopes to Crowne.
But (aye me) leapt into a Schollers Gowne. We ago to the Letter to the later agreed Elevisor of this month constitution of the constitution of A Needy Schollers w Leffe fate in that, then bo I thought shouldfle Therehad bene hope, to have superpost largen.
But a lanck Scholler I fludie have you can.
No Academic makes a sich Alderman.
Well, with this comfort meethen thay it discourse. When Fates are world, then they can be east to east a single street and east the fact and the fact of the go mudagna street at and a Scholler. the efecter malle the feet crafts lint: programs to at milita es no la contra de

The state of the s

The And the Lighting ale. went, encurve the plant and buttery of many butleant la-thes, and all the battailes. I was in two uppon points much which once let volume, the Enemy the Schulemonder would come receward o on luch amerplost tis a Chame to be called of By this time Pavame, imagine me flightly entertained, to be a pose Scholler and fernitos to fome Londoners Sonne, a pure Cockney, that must be are twice a weeke from his mother, or elfe he will be fithe end the foundar of a build this Philly grub sluch a sne I remember was my first poling mailer, by tohole paulik levuice I crept into an olde Battozs Cowne, and fo began to be a telly fellotic there was the first point of wit I thomps, in learning to keepe in felfe warmer to the confirming of which a you thall never take your free Philosophers without two night caps at once and better, a Golune of Rugge with the like appartenanced: and who be your wifes men I pray but there pow as for Audie and Bokes, I had the vie of my yong Paliters, fathe was all vay a Courties in the bolding aif mas in : his Boke with this old mouth eaten lentence. Naith Dies fine Linea: Acoe be would lab, Joblevoe it well, for Jam no day from the type of the Rushet-courts wet in the means time Akept his pluvishvarnie, and furtit the Pengof wit fr were of Arifforle, thept my braine in the fmart Juice of Lo. oced to prome any thing by the richer make the b ler, and fat but open the fluirts of learning; full often

The Ant, in Athe Wightingute. baue fighen , and loben bales Craves have fecurely reflet in their Limites, 3 have forcit mine eyes open, and even gagt them with Capitali Letters. Aretching them bypon the tonters of a broade West line. when Right and Slape have hing pound waits of lead by Downary such black and gallin seasons have I passour, accompanies onely with a bemure watching Camble, that blinks oppon Aristotles weekes, and gave even sufficient glimmering to reade by, but none to spare. We there my hopes grewe comfinitable upon the spreadoing Banches of Art and Learning; rather promiting future asnancement, then empty vapus and penutious learcitie. But that I tell you Lady, Die here let me ligh out a full point, and take my leans of all posters to the faire to the very price and glosts of all impol fruitfully lead to the licopilly Austie of I Doney- Boylon that Apolles a lipple & fitable: freetres; and belition; falls enrecite; butill he butif into exceamities; and became a Poetical) Cimleman; er at the molt, one of the pioes knights of Poetry; morie by onces then one of the pioes knights of Windlei. Parry there was an Ago once; but that, long fince wear and there was an lago como in Lawyers mano l cotton, lighule bull like unio in Lawyers mano l cotton, lighule bull like unio in Lawyers mano l maintainer himfelle better opan 18 on Plangks, and might banastrperved mode by the peace, by the renencio of his berfe is their any dictors. Since by the popular wealthy Departuings of these three tous dutises, and hoad fours Hangs of a Could bearbensient another the Managaran Turk and The Control of the C

Ohbuel chillein vaine, for gold wants ever, Andhkes where cares norwich whom which

The dat, and the Nightingale.

There was a Golden age! who murderd its How died that Age or what became of it?

Then Poets by durinest Alkemy,

Did turne their Inclete Gold, Kings in that time

Hung Iewells at the eare of every Rime.

But the those dayes are washed, and behold The Golden Agelyes in any non cheft a series on the Aille mail morning one of Orginers more commenced ted a two figures to be provided to the first for the first as polloner in ancellavera great Fron barn be Pullous valed, are the locks and the fely that the parties of eather hammy by that ins their the and fo wartch into bountifull sphila, and from beserving worthies beteding the continues, and loathsome Hangs of a Goate-bearben res a balile-louis Broker, and an Infectious Law-fogger.

> Oh But I chide in vaine, for gold wants eyes, And like a whore cares not with whom it lies.

these peries following, independ of spoodly lete took his oling, glone, twinch he is miss to much of that Athanie to thinks any glone, twinch he is miss to much of that Athanie to thinks any guidele limit or itsopper dispolition thould fetter his francis of the first to every because and therefore voice Gebalter, (production to every because and therefore voice Gebalter, (production is great in the first to every because and therefore voice Gebalter, (production is great in the first to every because and the refore voice Gebalter, (production is great in the first to be first to the first to be first to the first to the first to be committed force motorious trafpedle, reither for regime and before a will be because the first to the firs

The richeft spirit, that breaths in Fanthor Hell: some than The soule of Kingdome, and the stampe of soules.

Bright Angells we are not livery source agence Kingtom and Christen their names in Gold, and call themselves?

Royall and source ygue after my gilt name:

All offices are mine and in my gifts. O some parts.

All offices are mine and in my gifts. O some parts.

Flowe in the blood of Gold, the Courtier bathes.

His supple and last mous Lumber in Oyle,

Which my browe sweats I what Lady brightly sphearde. So

Ruttakes delight to laste a Golden beard.

Those pleaders for enoone. Players aft any parts:

With liberall tongs and delperate sighting spirits,

With liberall tongs and delperate sighting spirits.

That we alle with the Armes of voice and Ayre:

And least they should be out or faint, or told.

Their Innocent Clyente hist them on with Golds.

What holy Churchman's not accounted onen.

That prayes three times to me are once to heavent a not me to let shine the radiance of my buth.

Then to let shine the radiance of my buth.

3

Har's

Dere's gisleen spaielly energy 3 from the Goto art there is powerfold, to mighty, and yet fracted with apope Pad-locked Oh bake dander, and to butworthy of such an Angelishe source, much like a faire flesh - facto Courtier, without either toit or berive i Abou that theworth the Carthen Bowle of the world with the Boas the wrong way, to pelantry, valencine, Ingentistic, and nonce givest defert his due, or thaken the yealow wings in a Schollers Stronie; but why do I lose my felle in feeling the, before them art found of Live but Aliterat Pindes, when then art found of Live but Aliterat Pindes, tugs Bopts; and hours peup fathero, that keepe the in perpentual trails, in bacies, under false vogus, soutill contrined walls, and in horrible dathe Dungions, dury the most brechter walls, and in horrible dathe Dungions bury the most brechter and make the rise agains at their pleasures many athousand time before Domes day; and get will not all this more the once to forfake them, and keepe company with a Scholker, that truly knowed how to be these company with a Scholker, that truly knowed how to be these

By the time I had transco an clabopate Poetical loniding, a neate, chaple, and curious Poem, the first trustes of the interest and make call riming discue; which was dispearst into a quaint volume, fairly bound by in principal delium, bouble fillerted with lease. Solo, strong most Gentlemantike with Cornation Alke Midband: which Boke, Industriantly beaped with waighty Conscites, pretious Physics, and wealthy Pumbers, I Oliver Hubburd, in the beat fashion I might, presented to Six Christopher Clutch-fist; I whose boundfull vertur I blaze in any first Chiffe, the book he entertained, but I think for the coverd sake, because it made such a goody showe on the backside, and some two dairs after returning for my remimeration, I might show two dairs after returning for my remimeration, I might show two dairs after returning for my remimeration, I might show the Countains side Padanne) my booke dismembred bear transcally, the Cover vipt of, I know not for what purpose, and the Countains sides with out, and places in his shade with leather shows at which trusps pub out, and places in his shade with leather shows I came to my selfe againe I was an Ant, and so exert since I was the Ept me.

E 76

经独自

The Nightingale,

There keepe thee still, Since all are Ill: Venture no more, Tis better be a litle Ant. Then a great man, and live in want: And Still deplore: So rest thee now, From swoord, Booke, or Plough. By this the day began to spring, And seaze vpon her watchfull eies: When more Tree-Queristers did fing, And every Bird did wake and rife: Which was no fooner feene and heard. But all their prety chat was mards And then the faide, We are betraide, The day is vp, and all the birds, And they abroad will blab our words: With that she bad the Ants farewell, And all they likewife Philomont. Away the flew, Crying Teres! And all the Industrious Ants in throngs, Fell to their worke, and held their tongs.

FINIS.